Douroub Lebanon

Find Your Way to the Authentic Lebanon
Business Profile & Policies

1. About us

Douroub Lebanon (douroub means "paths" in Arabic) is a Lebanese tourism agency that connects locals, the Lebanese diaspora, and international visitors with authentic experiences across the country: village visits, nature outings and hikes, traditional food and craft workshops, coastal discoveries, heritage days, and overnight stays with local hosts.

The agency was founded by Sara, who grew up spending summers in her grandparents' village in the Chouf. Friends visiting from abroad kept asking her where to go beyond the usual postcard spots, who to call, and how to spend a day that felt real rather than packaged. Douroub Lebanon grew out of those conversations. Today we work with a network of local guides, family-run guesthouses, home cooks, artisans, and small producers from the north to the south of the country.

2. Mission

To connect visitors with Lebanese culture, landscapes, village life, food traditions, and local communities, making Lebanon's hidden gems easier to discover while making sure that the value of every visit stays with the guides, hosts, guesthouses, and small businesses who make it possible.

3. Who we serve

- International travellers visiting Lebanon for the first time who want more than the standard circuit.
- Members of the Lebanese diaspora reconnecting with the country, its villages, and its food.
- Residents of Lebanon looking for a weekend outing, a family day, or a new region to explore.
- Couples, families, friend groups, and solo travellers; each experience lists its own group size.

4. Services

- Curated village and town visits — guided walks through historic towns, souks, and villages.
- Nature outings and hikes — forests, valleys, waterfalls, and caves, from gentle walks to full-day hikes.
- Food and drink experiences — village cooking, street food walks, sweets tastings, vineyard visits.
- Heritage days — major archaeological and historic sites with licensed heritage guides.
- Craft workshops — hands-on time with traditional artisans such as potters.
- Coastal and sea experiences — relaxed seaside towns and guided sea kayaking.
- Seasonal adventures — winter snowshoeing in the cedars.
- Overnight stays — a night in a mountain village guesthouse with local hosts.

- Personalized recommendations — itinerary suggestions built from our catalog around a visitor's interests, budget, group size, and number of days.

5. Team

Name	Role	Focus
Sara	Founder & Experience Curator	Designs every experience with local hosts, visits each partner in person, and keeps the catalog authentic.
Ahmad	Local Partnerships & Operations	Built and maintains our network of guides, guesthouses, cooks, and artisans; handles the practical side of each experience.
Khaled	Guest Experience Coordinator	Reviews every inquiry, follows up by email, and confirms dates, availability, final price, and arrangements.
Alaa	AI Concierge	Answers questions, recommends and compares experiences, suggests itineraries, and records inquiries and feedback for the team.

6. What makes us different

- Locally hosted — every experience is led or hosted by people from the place you are visiting.
- Personalized — recommendations match each visitor's interests, budget, pace, group size, and trip length.
- Honest — we say clearly what is included, what is not, and what still needs to be confirmed.
- Community-first — we work with small, family-run partners so tourism income stays local.
- Whole-country coverage — from Tripoli and the Qadisha Valley in the north, through Mount Lebanon and the Bekaa, to Sidon, Tyre, and Jezzine in the south.

8. How booking works

1. Explore — ask Alaa about experiences, compare options, or request a suggested itinerary.

2. Send an inquiry — share your name, email, the experiences you are interested in, preferred dates, and group size. Alaa records it for the team.

3. Confirmation by the team — Khaled reviews the inquiry and replies by email to confirm availability, dates, final price, and arrangements.

4. Reserved — your experience is reserved only after the team confirms it by email.

Douroub Lebanon accepts inquiries, not instant bookings; recording an inquiry is never a confirmed reservation. We recommend sending inquiries at least one week before the desired date, especially for weekends, overnight stays, and seasonal experiences.

9. Policies

Pricing

Prices are in US dollars and are per person. A group price is the per-person price multiplied by the number of participants. Each experience lists what is included; site entry tickets are only included where the catalog says so. No discounts, promotions, or package deals are currently offered.

Seasons

Most experiences run year-round. D02, D10, and D18 run from spring to autumn (April to November); D20 runs from late spring to early autumn (May to October); D19 runs only in winter (December to March) and depends on snow. Exact dates are always confirmed by the team.

Honesty

Our concierge never invents availability, discounts, transport, accessibility, ingredients, safety guarantees, or booking confirmations. When it does not know something, it says so and passes the question to the team.

Privacy

To follow up on an inquiry we only need a name, an email address, and a description of the request. Please do not share passport numbers, payment details, or health records with the concierge.

10. Details confirmed by our team on request

Some details depend on the date, the group, and the partner, so we do not publish them as fixed facts. Alaa will not guess about these; instead it records the question so the team can answer it personally.

- Availability on specific dates
- Transport and pickup arrangements
- Accessibility and mobility suitability
- Dietary and allergy suitability
- Safety arrangements for outdoor and water activities
- Opening hours of sites and travel times between locations
- Payment methods, refunds, and cancellation terms

11. Languages

Experiences are offered in Arabic, English, and French.
